

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The Western Junior Livestock Show is being held in Rapid City, South Dakota, on October 14-17; and,

WHEREAS, This is the 50th consecutive Western Junior Livestock Show; and,

WHEREAS, The show represents the combined efforts of supporters from agriculture, agricultural organizations, the business community, the Extension Service and 4-H Club Work; and,

WHEREAS, The Western Junior Livestock Show has grown from a humble beginning to a major 4-H livestock event and youth education program; and,

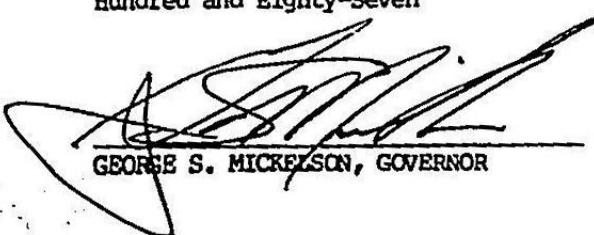

WHEREAS, The show has consistently held forth a commitment to the original principles of providing "...boys and girls a form of 4-H Club Work that fits this western part of South Dakota," "...livestock knowledge and the recognition of good quality livestock...to these young people," and making "...cattle feeders in Iowa and eastern South Dakota acquainted with the quality of feeding stock that we produce in this country":

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the days of October 14 through 17, 1987, as in South Dakota, and commend all supporters, past and present, for their contribution to youth development and, by doing so, helping to insure a bright future for South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourteenth Day of October, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICELSON, GOVERNOR
